February 20, 2013: Progress Reports

Progress Reports & Course Selection Sheets

The Progress Reports & Course Selection Sheets are scheduled to be distributed during first period to the students on Wednesday, February 20, 2013. We are asking parents please sign the progress report and have the student return it to their 1st period teacher by Monday, February 25, 2013

Congratulations German students

The GSMST team did very well at the State German Convention on Friday Feb. 1 and Saturday Feb.2.

Seven students from first year German competed in a variety of events, winning five certificates.

In the Project category, Pavle Zivojinovic placed third for the German chocolate-cherry cake, Schwarzwaelderkirschtorte.

In academic competitions, Jessica Bentley took third in the Level One vocabulary bee. Melissa Kuester won first place in the Level One written test.

Katie Harris placed first in both Level One Spelling bee and Level One Vocabulary bee. A fun time was had by all, and Frau Crook is very proud of her students and their accomplishments.

Job Shadow Event

Job Shadow Event: all 10th grade students will be going on a Job Shadow field trip on Tuesday, February 26th. Parents, please make sure you sign your child's field trip permission form. Students are to turn in their field trip forms and a $5 donation to off-set the cost of buses by Tuesday, February 19th. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. McAuliffe in the Counseling Office.
