10th and 11th: SAT/ACT Combo Diagnostic Test

August 23rd, Applerouth is again offering an SAT/ACT combination test at GSMST. This predictive test will provide students and their parents with more complete information about testing preferences, including a detailed, individualized report with the student's strengths and weaknesses. Students can then make an informed decision on what test to focus on for college admissions.

Don't miss this opportunity to determine the right test for your child.

Internship Intel

An internship can be a great way to get a job, especially if you have no relevant experience. Ninety-one percent of employers surveyed said students should have between one and two internships under their belt, and those internships should be at least three months. Eighty-two percent of the employers said they hire interns for full-time positions.
